Starting with a small number of immigrants in the last century, Arab-Canadians have become an important addition to the Canadian mosaic. Arab-Canadians are now contributing their talents to Canadian society at every level. Because our homeland was the cradle of civilization and the birthplace of the three monolithic religions, we feel

Income Tax Services for Individuals, Institutions & Businesses

* By: Amar Nath Sen

Scope :

Ideally it is meant for businesses with net income below $500,000 Business runs typically by the owner and his close friends. It includes business & profession, like doctors, engineers etc. It covers some of planning features which would help to manage their taxes in Canada.

Incorporate a business - What is ideal point to incorporate your business/profession

It mainly depends on your personal income profile & how much initial net income from the business. Mostly, for initial period you don't make positive net income and it can be offset against your other personal income. That would reduce your net tax liability at the end. If your business/profession making positive net income then it is wise to get the incorporation done for the business/profession. Few exceptions are there on case-to-case basis.

Jurisdiction for incorporation - Federal or provincial

Generally, initial cost for incorporation is lower in case of Federal jurisdiction as against provincial. But there is recurring token amount for Federal for Annual return filing.

Few administrative guidance

Open separate bank account and credit card in the name of the business; spent out of these only for the business/profession;

If vehicle purchased, make sure all the papers are in the name of the business and not personal name of the owner.

All vendors invoices/receipts, charged with HST, must have their Business # on it.

If making payment to contractors, over $600 annual, make sure obtain their names and SIN #

Opening payroll, A/c; if there are regular employees it should be opened.

Make sure to get all the employee's full details, like Full name, SIN, DOB, Address, Contact #, Start date etc.

Special caution to decide a person as employee or a contractor; this need proper advise from professionals before deciding

Opening GST/HST Account

Normally, if expected annual gross income is more than $30,000 registration is mandatory for taxable sale/service.

Voluntary registration can be obtained anytime but that would require compliance to rules for this purpose. It is better to have consultation with professionals before deciding on this matter to avoid any inconvenience.

Should You Sell Your House Before You Buy A New One?

By Adele & Mark Youssef

It's the first choice you have to make when you decide to move and one that just might define the state of the housing market. Do you start the process by selling or buying?

Buy something and the clock starts ticking on selling your current home because you likely need that money to close the house you just purchased.

In markets where sales are plummeting that could be a scary proposition. So you sell first. But what do you do if you can't find something you like in the neighbourhood you want. Remember, your kids need to go to that local school and be in the district. Are you prepared to rent for a while?

People in the industry say the tradition historically has been to sell your home and then start shopping for the new one. But in this housing market, with multiple offers the norm and time on the market dropping in many cities, the process reversed and people starting buying, knowing their home would sell with ease. There are drawbacks to both selling first or buying first but the decision is very much based on your view of the market.

One option is to demand a closing date on your purchase a little further out, increasing your odds of selling. At the end of the day, you might need an escape clause. Renting is an option, but that market can be tight too. Most Realtors advise clients to sell first. But you should keep in mind that, for a young family, selling first comes with the risk of not finding something in the right neighborhood. If you can carry two properties you should buy the home that is perfect for you with that long closing date. You are going to need a lot of capital to pull that off because bridge financing at the banks is difficult to obtain without a buyer commitment for your existing home. The banks will provide bridge financing about if the closing date for the sale of your home comes after your purchase date, but you have to have a committed buyer.

Ultimately, if you buy first you can reduce the price of the home you are selling to move it. Forget about trying to walk away from your purchase though, you've made a commitment to buy and left a deposit. You can't just walk away, you'll be sued, and you are in breach of contract.

You can try to buy a home with a condition that says the purchase is subject to the sale of your existing home but you are going up against people with no conditions. Before anybody agrees to that type of offer they'll have an escape clause in case a firm bid comes in. That clause might give you a right of first refusal but you'll have to come back with a clean offer with no conditions. Banks/mortgage companies caution against buying without having a firm seller for your existing home. You can have the equity for two properties but you also need to have the income to carry both properties, the bank probably won't extend credit to you for two homes without a high enough income. It would put you in a situation that is uncomfortable and maybe not even affordable.

Do you want to sell a property because you are desperate?" Doug Porter, chief economist at BMO Capital Markets, said any shift in the trend to buy or sell first will depend on the city because some cities are still sellers' markets. Ultimately, it comes down to your view of the market. You want to buy first, you have to be pretty confident you can sell. Are you?

Can vaping damage your lungs?

Know the facts

By John Dawood

Youth vaping is a big problem in Canada. The rising popularity of vaping has been dramatic, especially among teenagers. The number of youth smoking cigarettes has declined significantly but the number of youth who are vaping is on the rise.

What is vaping? Vaping products (electronic cigarettes or e-cigarettes) are devices that heat a liquid into an aerosol that is inhaled (breathed in) into the lungs. These devices are commonly called vapes, mods, e-hookahs, sub-ohms, tank systems and vape pens.

The liquid (sometimes referred to as e-juice) in a vape product contains a combination of ingredients, usually including nicotine (the highly addictive drug found in tobacco products), propylene glycol, vegetable glycerine and flavouring. Many of these substances are considered safe for ingestion (eating); however, when these liquids are heated, they produce new chemicals that may not be safe to inhale. For example, the heating process can create chemicals like formaldehyde and other contaminants such as nickel, tin and aluminum.

Vaping and youth: How to talk to your child about vaping.

Vaping is on the rise among teenagers. While smoking rates among Canadian youth are at an all-time low, youth vaping is on the rise. Although most youth are aware of the harms and consequences of smoking cigarettes, they often underestimate the effect that vaping can have on their health and well-being. Learning more about vaping and its consequences can help you have an honest and informed conversation with your child about vaping, and help your child make informed and healthy decisions.

Why do youth vape? Youth report that they vape to reduce stress and because of their desire to fit in. Youth say they enjoy vaping. Vapes come in thousands of different flavours, many of them candy and fruit flavours that are popular with young people. They also vape because they become addicted to nicotine.

What are the health effects of vaping? Any time we breathe in anything, other than medication or fresh air into our lungs, there is a potential to cause harm. Vaping is no different. We are still collecting more research to fully understand the long-term health effects to inform Canadians. But at this point, we do already know that there is harm connected to vaping.

* Nicotine dependence: vaping products contain large amounts of nicotine, which is a highly addictive drug.

For instance, 1 Juul Pod (Juul is one brand name of a vaping product) has the same amount of nicotine as 20 cigarettes (approximately one pack). This means people may develop dependence quickly and it may even increase your chances of smoking traditional cigarettes.

* Negative lung health effects of tobacco use include worsening of existing lung conditions, lung cancer and COPD among others.

* Short-term symptoms: Individuals should watch for signs of cough, shortness of breath, chest pain, nausea, vomiting and/or diarrhea. These may be signs of lung damage. If you are experiencing these symptoms, seek medical attention.

* Lung disease: Vaping can make asthma and other existing lung diseases worse. Breathing in the harmful chemicals from vaping products can cause irreversible (cannot be cured) lung damage, lung disease and, in some cases, death. Some chemicals in vaping products can also cause cardiovascular disease and biological changes that are associated with cancer development.

The bottom line: Vaping is not without risk, so understanding the potential short- and long-term health outcomes before vaping is recommended. Younger people should be educated to understand their increased risk of nicotine addiction compared with the general population and should be strongly encouraged to not try or start vaping.

SGS Compuwave has been offering their services for nearly 14 years now! Services include computer repairs, derivatives, working with all makes and models. "When I started out of my house, building success started, but it didn't happen overnight," says the man himself, computer connoisseur Scott Sim. "I got tired of the routine work in many jobs from 9 to 5 and I wanted to work alone in a job that I can do well and have extensive experience in its techniques. I now work from 9am to 9pm but taking the risk was rewarding and ultimately successful. I think I've always been the guy who always goes after what he wants, no matter what the risks would be. I have been self-taught, and with my hard, good, and responsible work, and the opinion of my clients and customers, I have become one of the leading experts and pioneers in the sale, repair and management of computers, and have proven that my store is a successful business in Windsor/Essex territory."

Scott is currently not considering expansion. All he wants to do is to focus on his shop, located on Wyandotte Street East, to potentially expand in the future.

I've known Mr. Sim for more than ten years now and have dealt with him several times. I bought computers from him, and he has worked on fixing and maintaining a variety of electronics, including the computers. He has written many articles for us at Al-Mohajer Newspaper, about computer science and discussed topics in his expertise about how to keep your device private and safe. Read his work in this issue. You will find it on page 3.

Not only is Scott someone who excels in his profession, he is truly a kind, gentle, and polite person. He treats clients with courtesy and the utmost care. When you enter his establishment, he meets you with a smile and a warm welcome. Mr. Sim's clients are local small and medium businesses. Scott says he's even more inspired to continue pursuing his job when his clients and customers leave happy as they receive service that no one can match. "It's what keeps me going, it's what drives me to do better." If you have any computer service needs or are looking for a new computer or device for your workplace or home, contact Mr. Scott Sim at SGS Compuwave.

Despite the periodic closures and the restrictions that have taken place due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Mr. Sim remains relentless, keeping pace with market developments and changing circumstances. Mr. Sim gives laptop services special importance, this includes:

- Providing shipping service to all areas in the city of Windsor and the Essex region, and beyond.
- Computer maintenance is an additional service that Mr. Sim performs in addition to the services he provides to the customer.

The best segment that can be targeted through a locality is the segment of business owners. Business owners are also customers. He is in computer services, diversifying in options. For example, he sells desktop computers and laptops to various companies and brands.

6 Tips on How to Clean Up and Organize Your Computer

Be able to find files faster and work more efficiently with a well-ordered PC

Organizing your computer doesn't typically cross a person's mind on a regular basis, but it's a known fact that doing so can result in a more effective use of your PC. By cleaning your computer, you create an environment where it's easier to maneuver around and access all of the great resources a computer provides. You'll be able to find files more easily and operate your computer in a quicker manner. There are six essential tips that make cleaning your disorganized PC an easy task.

Step 1: Start by tidying up your desktop. Get rid of random shortcuts that you don't need and files that have no more purpose to you. Installations and documents that aren't used often but are deemed important should be placed in separate files, away from the desktop.

Step 2: Clear out old or unnecessary files. Delete files that have no use to you anymore to create room for files of importance. Things like tax documents, financial statements, and things of personal importance to you are things that should be kept saved and clearly labelled in files accordingly.

Step 3: Back up and save important documents. If there are important documents or specific things of value to you that you don't necessarily need to keep on your computer, consider backing them up on an external drive or other online storage system.

Step 4: De-clutter your email inbox. Go through your emails and see which ones are of no use to you anymore, and delete them. Emails pile up quickly and without organizing them, it creates a hectic area for exchange of information.

Step 5: Clean up Internet files. Organizing your browser program can help you access the sites of importance to you, quicker and easier. Cleaning out your browser cache will help your browser run more quickly, so you don't have to wait forever for sites to load up.

Step 6: Get rid of unused and redundant programs. Chances are, you don't use every single program on your computer. Pick and choose the programs you need, and consider deleting other irrelevant programs that take up hard drive space on your PC.

By following these six tips, using your newly organized computer will become a much easier process.

"I wonder where in the inner country, On what train shooting between two mountains you fly tonight, Susumu?"

2- Earl Birney

I met a lady on a lazy street - hazel eyes and little plush feet - her legs swam by like lovely trout - eyes were trees where boys leant out - hands in the dark and - a river side - round breasts rising - with the fingers' tide (From "The Hazel Bough") He invented a rainbow but lightning struck it. Shattered it into the lake - lap of mountain - so big his mind slowed when he looked at it. (Bushed) All week the maid tells me bowing - her doll's body at my mat - (A Walk in Kyoto) Unreal - tall as a myth by the road the Himalayan bear - is beating the brilliant air with his crooked arms (The Bear on the Delhi Road) Well here's a carpenter's son who'll have carpenter's sons - God willing and build what's wanted. (El Greco Espolio) Who says less and worse than we feel - I was giddy from sudden friendship wanted undeserved. (For George Lamming). I walk as the earth turns from its buring father here on the lowest edge of mortal city. (November Walk Near False Creak Mouth) There are delicacies in you - like the hearts of watches - There are wheels that turn on the tips of rubies and tiny intricate locks (There are Delicacies) Earl Birney is a poet who believes that moral progress is possible. He is quite irked by human cruelty and indifference. Birney says that "... the effective writer is one who is inwardly sure of the entire naturalness of his creative act."

3- Al Purdy

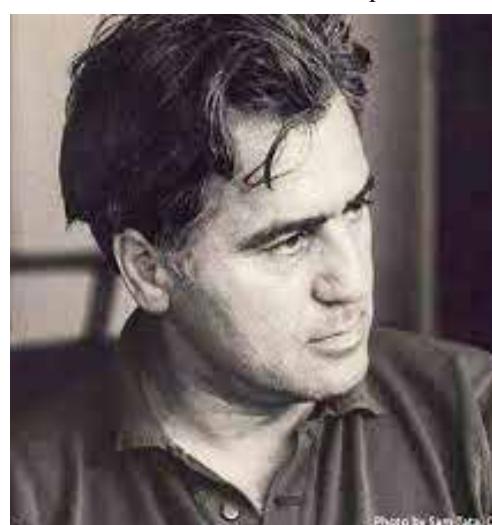

His first book of poems was published in 1944. He was poet-in-residence in several universities. Purdy said: "There ought to be a quality in a good poet beyond any analysis, the part of this mind that leaps from one point to another, sideways, backward..." He has published a number of works, such as "Sundance at Dusk", "Sex and Death" and "No Other Country". He was born in Toronto and spent most of his life there. The following are excerpts from his poems: "At 100 Mile house the cowboys ride in rolling stagey cigarettes with one hand reining half-tame bronco rebels ... (The Cariboo Horses) Riding the Boxcars out of Winnipeg in a morning after rain so close to the violent sway of the fields it's running and running naked with summer in your mouth and the guy behind you grunts and says, "Got a smoke?" (Transient) "The river's soft roar drifts to my ear and changes tone when the wind changes ... (Eskimo Graveyard) "A block away on an Ottawa street I see this woman about to fall and she collapses slowly in sections the way you read about and there just might be time for me to reach her (Alive or Not).

4- Irving Layton

Layton is the best-known and controversial figure in Canadian poetry, because he is so outspoken... Layton's barbs are not limited to the middle class. He is also critical of educational institutions. Layton's poetry is concerned with three main topics: sexual love, power and imagination. He was born in Romania and taught in a boys' private school and later Sir George Williams University. He has published many books or poetry. The following excerpts are from a number of his poems: "How shall i sing the accomplished waters Whose teeming cells make green my hopes (Sacrament by the Water). "Whatever else poetry is freedom Forget the Rhetoric, the trick of lying All poets pick up sooner or later (Whatever Else Poetry is Freedom). "When I saw my mother's head on the cold pillow, Her white water falling hair in the cheeks hollows, I thought, quietly circling my grief, of how She loved God but cursed extravagantly his creatures" (Keine Lazaravitch, 1870-1959) "If I lie still the light from the leaves will drop on my hands and knees Fire will envelop me yet I won't burn (If I lie still)

5- P.K. Page

P.K. Page was born in England but raised in Calgary and Winnipeg. She moved to Montreal where she worked as a Scriptwriter for the National Film Board. Page has been quoted as saying: "I am a traveler. I have a destination but no maps ... What yes at the end is unknown."

The following are excerpts from her poetry. "Their climates are winter and summer - no winds for the kites for their hearts - no wind for a flight; (The Stenographers) Nothing is unprepared. They hold the walls about them as they weep or laugh. (The Landlady). That day all the slaves were freed. Their manacles bracelets anklets left on the window ledge to rust in the moist air. (Brazilian Fazenda). Someone was shoveling gravel. Was it I? Burying me in shifts and shards of rock up to my gasping throat. My head was out dismembered, sunken - eyed as John the Baptist's on its plane. (A Grave Illness) In countries where leaves are large as hangs Where flowers protrude their fleshy chins and call their colours. An imaginary snow-storm sometimes falls amount the lilies, and in the early morning one will waken to think ... (Stories of Snow).

6- Raymond Souster

Souster was born in Toronto in 1921 and has spent all of life there except the war years. He says that his main concern is to keep singing in the face of despair. He has published more than a dozen books of poetry. He is predominantly a poet of content. He is troubled by the impermanence of things. He calls himself "an unrepentant regionalist." The following are taken from his poetry: "Get the poem outdoors under and pretext, reach through the open window if you have to, kidnap it right off the poet's desk, then walk the poem in the garden..." (Get the Poem Outdoors) ('i have not lingered in European monasteries and discovered among the tall grass tombs of knights who fell as beautiful as their ballads tell; (I have not lingered in European monasteries) You have the lovers, they are nameless \, their histories only for each other, and you have the room, the bed and the windows (You Have the Lovers)

Are Pop Lyrics Literature?

By : Reda Mansour

This is a question for all of us to ponder. Those who recently awarded the Nobel Prize* to lyricist Bob Dylan have answered in the positive. Sara Danius, permanent secretary of the Swedish Academy, announced Bob Dylan's victory. Dylan's lyrics have been the subject of academic study for decades.

Bob Dylan was cited for "having created new poetic expressions within the great American song tradition." It was stated that Homer and Sappho "wrote poetic texts that were meant to be, like Homer and Sappho, their predecessors listened to, performed often with musical instruments. The same is true of Bob Dylan.

Bob Dylan was born Robert Allen Zimmerman in Duluth Minnesota in 1941. He obtained his first guitar at the age of 14 and performed in rock and roll bands. In 1961 he moved to New York and performed in Greenwich Village, which was known for progressive music and other new pursuits. His first of many albums was made public in 1962.

According to the Nobel prize committee, his albums revolve around topics such as human condition, religion, politics and love. As an artist Dylan has been termed "strikingly versatile." He has been a painter, actor and song-writer. His status is that of an icon. His influence on contemporary music is profound, and he is the subject of a steady stream of secondary literature.

Dylan became the first American to win the Nobel Prize for literature since Toni Morrison took the prize in 1993. Bob Dylan is a name that has been well-known for decades. It is highly probable that our decade is not the last that will shout his fame

Why Math Word Problems are Worrisome to Children

By: Giovanna Russo-Romao
Windsor Sylvan Learning

Word problems take math concepts, such as arithmetic, geometry and algebra, and relate them back to the real world. But somehow, in the conversion from numbers and symbols to the written word, even students adept at math can become confused and discouraged. In fact, children often find it easier to solve a problem that explicitly asks them to multiply two numbers rather than tackle a word problem that requires the same mathematical skills.

In addition to knowledge of core math concepts, word problems also require strong reading comprehension skills. Before a child can solve a word problem, he needs to be able to translate the problem into a math equation.

Once a child deciphers a word problem and is able to convert it into a simple equation, most students can easily calculate the answer. Unfortunately, determining the right equation is often the most challenging part of problem-solving. By applying reading comprehension skills to their math homework, students are better able to solve word problems correctly.

To help children boost their critical thinking and word problem-solving skills, the math experts at Sylvan Learning, the leading provider of tutoring to students of all ages, grades and skill levels, offer parents the following tips to help their children decode word problems, gather key information, solve equations and check their answers:

1- Read the question carefully. Ask your child to read and reread the question to make sure that he understands what he is being asked to solve. Encourage him to read the question aloud and pay close attention to the final question of the word problem.

2- Understand the problem. Encourage her to simplify the word problem by highlighting the main words and important ideas. Have the student ask herself the following questions: What am I being asked to do? What are the important facts? Do I have enough information to solve the problem? What operation will I use?

3- Convert the verbal statement into a mathematical equation. Help him break the word problem into manageable, ordered steps. It's a good idea to do the work step-by-step, particularly if it's a complicated problem with several parts. It's easier to keep the pieces of the problem in order if he works this way and easier to avoid mistakes.

4- Generate the result. Encourage her to solve the mathematical problem using a technique such as drawing or mentally acting out the problem. After she finishes, make sure the results make sense and that she writes the answer in the appropriate units (e.g., hours, metres, kilometres, etc.

An Essay on Peace

By : Reda Mansour

CHILDREN OF WARS

Poem by : Reda Mansour

I welcome you my children born into tragedy
the guns of death sound beside you as you search for meaning in confusion and conflict frustration your lot.
Where does love dwell?
Certainly not with sounds of injustice and destruction and the hounds of war bark and terrify children of peace.
Children of wars – Your callow eyes fill with tears of terror
Born to love – you find it hides beneath the corpses
of the young whose lives are being cut short and tragedy becomes the word emblazoned on the sordid air. And mothers caught upon a stage of destruction where to build is not the order of the day
but destroy a word from the hell of reality and angels are being felled by shells of indifference.
Who can make a world of pride, beauty, sisterhood and brotherhood?
Has war ever build anything worth building?
Strive you must to fashion a loving hear in the midst of destruction.

War and destruction cause a loss of respect for human life.

The concept of survival of the fittest guarantees death and injury to the weak. This is a misapplication of Charles Darwin's well-known dictum. "Some leaders tragically respond with violence even before debate and compromise are considered."

The Middle East has a proud history with regard to scientific, cultural and creative endeavors.
These are being dwarfed by leaders who think of destroying "enemies" rather than addressing their valid concerns.

The motto, "Put peace before interests" should be taken seriously by leaders on all sides before further tragedies are visited upon a part of the world known for civilization, scientific thinking and philosophy. The lives of thousands are at stake.

Corruption, terrorism, bloodshed and wanton destruction can never lead to a better life for all.
The challenge is before us. The stakes are too high to fail to act courageously and wisely.

this poem to symbolize my journey as a feminist killjoy. As well as my challenges to finding change in my life and radical acceptance for who I am; for my humanity. I've found that these structures are built to feed into our egos and insecurities. By denying them, there is great peace and courage that can be found in having a voice. Stripping away the fear that was once instilled in us, in turn, allows us to question and redefine the norms. It's far from perfect but I hope that this poem can reflect my vulnerability and experience. Writing it felt almost solacing. It starts from the point of my conformity to breaking free. I wish that all women can break free as a collective. There is great need to illuminate and share one another's light, voices, and hardships.

what you say. For now, I'll stare at the ceiling, drawing figures and buildings, planning my great escape. Clinging to the hope that the ones around me won't fall out of place. I've been told "women like you have such grace." I might laugh it off and brush it all under the rug. But now my smile is nothing but displaced.
They don't know my indecencies, my sins and the pace — at which I run from all things I was created to be. The realization that it's inherent to me, the desire and uncanny willingness to be free.

The expectations placed upon my sisters are cruel. Anger and tension building, we will not play the fool.
You've taken our love, our understanding, our nature in kind. I'll destroy myself just for you until I've destroyed you too.

ERIE ST. Windsor, ON.Erie Street, the Italian and International Guest House in the Heart of Windsor

* By: Reda Mansour

Erie Street in Windsor, Ontario is more than just its standard definition like any other road-it is so much more than that; it is an experience. The sense of community one feels when visiting knows no bounds. It was on full display just this past month, where the excitement and passion local Italian fans had while watching the Italian National Team and other teams 2024 championship seemed to uplift all of Windsor as fans gathered in groups in unison down Erie to join in the festivities of celebration of many Events organized by Via Erie St. "Little Erie" Staffs & Volunteers. Erie is a beacon of light in our small city of Windsor, it brings a renewed sense of cultural thrill to the table, coupled with a history so rich, it gives the cuisine you can find here a run for its money. You can be stopping by one afternoon to pick up some fresh Fresh Italian bread from one of the various family-owned artisanal bakeries, such as Italia Bakery owned by the Mancini Family's, currently under New Management & New name (La Dolce ITALIA BAKERY) Effective September 1st, 2023 the Pupatello family has taken over the bakery's reins in the retail storefront. Under the leadership of Vince Pupatello & his family, the bakery will seamlessly transition into its new chapter and we have no doubt that they will continue to provide you with the same top-notch products and services for years to come.

And maybe you want to pickup some authentic pastries for dessert one evening, or even cruise by to choose one of many fabulous restaurants to wine and dine at, Erie has it all.

Erie has everything. Some of, if not the best restaurants in Windsor, call Erie their home, serving authentic cuisine that range from traditional Italian, mixed Canadian/Italian, Middle Eastern and Mediterranean, and so much more.

Italian traditions and cultural norms are evident to the history of Erie Street, with various festivals and parties that invite all to join, putting Italian hospitality at the forefront. When there is a party on Erie, all are welcome. Much of this is owed to Via Italia BIA and its Staffs & Volunteers, who work days and nights along with other colleagues to keep the street safe, lean and attractive to the community and its visitors.

Tour Di Via Italia Bike Races Saturday, August 10 @ 11:00 am - 6:30 pm/ The Tour di Via Italia bicycle races are a treasured tradition (60 plus years) in Windsor's original Italian community

Every year fans attend Erie Street, and recapture some of the magic of bike racing from European homelands. The competitors, of all ages and experience levels, do not disappoint. Racers from Windsor, and all across North America propel themselves in tight groups around the 1.7 km course at astounding speeds.

Always free to attend, and always a fun day. There are bakeries, markets, mom and pop shops, flourishing businesses and much more. It is no wonder that Erie Street is renowned as one of the best places in Windsor to house your business, it is always buzzing with even greater potential. As soon as you hear about a new restaurant opening on Erie Street, just know that you should most definitely check it out. To establish one's business on Erie and to last and be loved and frequented by the masses is a mark of public approval that should not be taken lightly. It can be considered as somewhat of a badge of honour in the city. Erie's identity has been around for as long as Italians have been in Canada. Italian culture has been deeply rooted in Canada since Italian immigrants started to arrive here to work in industries dealing with mining and the construction of railroads, bridges, and other public infra-structure. Most Italian immigrants made their way through Ontario, in specific, calling places like Windsor their home for more than 100 years now. This main boost in Italian immigration, especially to Ontario, Canada, came after the war, where families, like most immigrant identities and goals, wanted to provide a better life for their families. They did so in Canada, all while keeping a steady grip on their heritage and culture which simultaneously contributed beautifully to Canada's ever-growing multiculturalism. After all, there are few things more admirable than retaining your identity and cultural individuality while giving a piece of you to someone else, adding to the melting pot of something greater than ourselves: the strength in our differences

Almohajer Person of the Year

The ability to promote change and inspire is something that shouldn't be taken for granted. Whether it be in a specific community or in the world in general, real change may hinge on the efforts of one person that chooses to take the leap. Since 1999, Al-Mohajer Newspaper has chosen to annually crown a "Person of the Year" to honour the various individuals who have had a monumental impact on the lives of many in and out of their communities—even towards national influence. Some may think that choosing the person of the year is "down to a science", while on the contrary, it is quite subjective. It is a question of values and criteria employed in making the final decision. The past recipients are a product of diversity in all facets of the word. They come from various backgrounds, careers, ethnicities, and walks of life. They have passions like any other and display admirable skills like a strong sense of leadership and prowess in their chosen expertise that has allowed them to achieve the success that they have. The selection is based on (but not limited to) the following criteria:

1. The candidate must be a Canadian citizen (Arab or Non-Arab).
2. The candidate is recognized as one who has excelled in their area of expertise and one who has left a lasting imprint on their community.
3. The candidate has worked towards global peace and is an advocate of human rights and equality for all.

The candidate may be chosen based on any (or a combination) of the criteria above. For more information, please call The International Firm/Al-Mohajer at (519) 984-9562 or (519) 258-9690.

كيف تبيع منزلاً يصعب بيعه... دون خفض سعره

السر وراء الحصول على أعلى سعر هو العثور على المشتري الجدي والمناسب الذي يرغب في شراء منزلك لدرجة أنه مستعد لتقديم المبلغ الذي تطلبه بالكامل وفي بعض الأحيان (إذا كنت محظوظاً)، قد تجد مشترياً مستعداً لدفع سعراً أعلى من السعر المطلوب في الواقع، يحدث هذا أحياناً. المشكلة هي أن العديد من الأفراد يرکزون كثيراً على إخبار الجميع عن منزل معروض للبيع درجة أنهم يتجاهلون الجانب الأكثراً أهمية.

ابحث عن مشتري واحد جدي ويرغب في شراء المنزل بشدة لدرجة أنه مستعد لدفع السعر المطلوب بالكامل.

السؤال هو كيف يمكنك إيجاد المشتري المثالي؟

سوف أتكلم بإسهاب عن هذا الموضوع و غيره من المواضيع في مجالات بيع وشراء العقارات في الأعداد القادمة من جريدة المهاجر.

باحترام لوي حنا

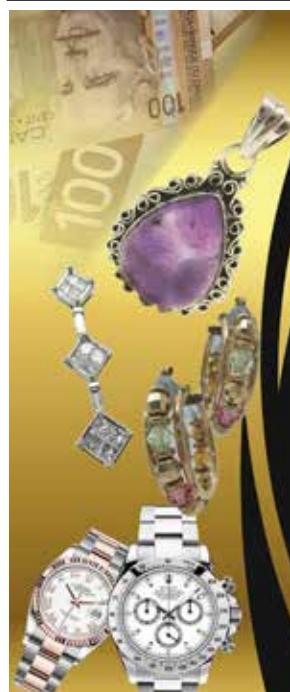

بكلم لوي حنا

كيف يمكنك بيع منزلك دون خفض السعر؟ سأوضح لك بسر عظيم، إن الطريقة التقليدية غير صحيحة تماماً. فهي مبنية على افتراض خاطئ مفاده أنه إذا أبلغت عدداً كافياً من الأفراد عن منزلك، فسوف يشتريه شخص ما.

هل منزلك لا يُباع؟ أخبر المزيد من الأفراد عنه. وعلى الرغم من أن وجود المزيد من الأشخاص يشاهدون المنزل يزيد من فرص بيعه إلا أنه لا يبيع المنزل فعلياً.

النقطة الأساسية هي أن ليس كل الأفراد مهتمين بشراء منزلك. وبالتالي، ربما سيكونون حريصين على شرائه بسعر منخفض للغاية حتى ولو لم يعجبهم، فهم سوف يشتوفوه بنصف المبلغ الذي يستحقه - وسيفعلون ذلك فقط من أجل بيعه فيما بعد لتحقيق مكاسب سريعة.

شعر رضا منصور

لأنني شاعر أهوى المروءه
وعيني لا ترى الا جميلاً واهوى الحسن وضاءً جميلاً وخطوي دائمًا للخير يسعى والاستغفار يجلو غيم قلبي لأنني شاعر تحتاج قلبي ويأسري التالُف والتَّاخِي فقلبي بالتسامح في أمان وأملك في صراع الشر نفسي
وأكظم غيظ قلبي في اصطبار
وأسمو بالتعفف والتَّسامي لأنني شاعر لا وقت عندي
وأعلم أنني عاهدت ربِّي وأشعر ابني تراث نفسي وأحيا يغمر اليمان قلبي
وان طال الدجى فالفجر يدنو وأدرك أن ناصيتي وأمري

”لأنني شاعر، لا أحد يذهب، لا أحد يجيء، لقد توقف الزمن“

في انتظار غدو - صموئيل بيكيت

* ما أن تدق الساعة الثانية عشرة معلنة بزغ عام جديد، حتى يتتسارع الطليان إلى توافدتهم ليرموا في الشارع أسمائهم العتيقة وأنتيهم القديمة. وما أن تدق السنة الجديدة عنقها حتى يذهب البرازيليون في زي دي جانيرو إلى الشاطئ ويرمرون الحال والشمار والذهب في البحر كهادياً للآلهة. بعد أن يكونوا قد أطلقوا الأسماء النارية وأضاءوا شاطئ كوبا كوبانا الطويل. أما في مدينة بالسويسيرية فأشد المتحمسين والمحتفلين بعيد رأس السنة هم الأطفال دون الثامنة من العمر، يجوبون الشوارع نافخين في مزاميرهم، قارعين طبولهم الصغيرة يسهرون حتى منتصف الليل ويشاركون أهلهم ويعاكسونهم قبل أن يعاود الأهل السيطرة عليهم.

في القاطع الجنوبي من الكورة الأرضية تصادف أعياد رأس السنة في عز الصيف، حيث تباري الفرق الموسيقية أمام جمهور من النشارة. أما جزر البهاماس في البحر الكاريبي فهي تكبر في احتفالاتها التي تبدأ في السادس والعشرين من شهر كانون الأول (ديسمبر) وتستمر حتى ما بعد رأس السنة بأمسique، دزيينة أيام يقضيها أهالي جزر البهاماس من طالبات مدارس وربات بيوت وفُنّانات ورقصات يتدربن على رقصات تهز فيها الصدور والمقدور على إيقاع قرع الطبول وموسيقى السamba والمباذا.

* عندما ترکضون نراوح مكاننا، الأشياء لا تتغير، الأيام لا تمر، وحدها الأعمار تجري كالأنهار وتطوينا كما تطوي منديل الوداع وأمجاد الزمن الجميل. تفلت الأيام من بين الأصابع كأنفلات الطيور من أقفالها ومهاجرون غرباء لتنا إلى أرض الآباء عودة، ولنا فيها موعد لا يخطئ، ربما نرجع بعد سنة أو سنتين أو عشر سنوات... وعمر الشباب والصبايا كم عشر سنوات فيه؟ والمرمر كله كمرحلة شباب فيه؟ وبين سنة وسنة تأخذ التجاعيد مكانها على عجل وعلى غفلة من الجميع. يزحف الشيب كلص ويلماً رؤوسنا ببياض شبابه بهامة جبل الشيخ.

* وحدهم الشعراء لا يطقون الوداع، داع الأحبة، داع الأشياء والكلمات، داع الزمن المهدور والشباب المهدور. وحدهم الشعراء يعلون باب الكلمات ويطلون من شرفة الروح، وإن رحلوا لا يرحلون، بل يفتحون عتمات أجسادهم ويدخلون خفافاً مثل طير الشعر... فيما طير الشعر هل تدرى على أي خد وقعت دموع الهجر؟ أيتها العيون الحانية الليالي رأس السنة في رأس بيروت. سلاماً، أيها الوطن المكبل بأهله وشعبه سلاماً. تحية لك يا وطني من باد الشّاج وشارف الصّبّع التي روضها أبناؤك دفناً، وخيراً وبركة وعافية. في هذا العيد أرفع قلبي عالياً، عالياً عالياً حتى ينفجر الآبط، وأرفع كأسى عالياً كمن يشهر سيفاً، وأشبر نخبك، يا وطني نخب عودة الروح الأصلية إلى الجسد العليل، ونخب المتواضعين على المقام، ربِّي، إله المتواضعين على لقاء، إجمع شمل الأحبة؟ وكل عام وأنت بسلام.

* أجلس إلى مكتبي عند انقضاض كل سنة وأذرف أيامها أفرحاً وجراحاً تسلب على ورق الكتابة. أسجل الآخطة التي لا بد من تقاديمها فيما سيأتي من أيام. أحصي انتصاراتي / وما ألقاها، وأعد خيالي / وما أكثراها ، أتفجر باميرية الوهم، وأنثر بالاحلامي التي لا تنطفئ. هكذا أفتح دفاتري وأقوم بجريدة حساب أين كنت؟ أين

كل عام وأنتم بخير وسلم.

كتب العرافون ولو صدقوا

يقولون أن عام ٢٠٢٦ سيكون أكثر مأساوية

مما سبقه. وسيكون فاتحة أحزان جديدة.

وبشارة سوداء. تحمل علامات الموت والقتل

والتفجير والأرهاب. وأن أعياد العرب

ستتحول كلها إلى مناحة. فلن يمر عيد بعد

اليوم الا والعرب في مأساة. ولن يطل عيد...

الا والعرب يعزنون، وان قدر العرب ان لا يفرّحوا

بعيد، وان لا يحتفلوا بمناسبة سعيدة. هكذا

سيمر هذا العيد... عليهم. وهكذا المهاجر

قبل قبّله، وهكذا دواليك. الاخرون هكذا يقولون، أما نحن في جريدة المهاجر

نقول كذب الاخرون والرافون ولو صدقوا. فلن تستطع نبوءة او حقيقة... ان

تجربتنا من الامل... او ترميّنا في ماتهات الأحباط. او تبابست رداء الياس والعجز

والانكسار... فالحياة تجدد دائم. وبعد كل موت، فيتّيق جديد. وعنقاء جديدة.
